Watercolor Painting Workshop with artist Luke Buck "Waterways in Watercolor"

at Raven Hill Discovery Center

Thursday, June 28, 2018 & Friday, June 29, 2018
10:00 am to 3:00 pm both days

Early enrollment is encouraged, as space is limited.

In collaboration with the national "Smithsonian Museum on Main Street Water/Ways" exhibit" Raven Hill is hosting this summer, Luke has chosen the study of "Waterways in Watercolor" for the theme of the Watercolor Workshop this year. Using Luke's unique technique in transparent watercolor and gouache, the group will study painting landscape scenes depicting water in different forms, lakes, streams, or waterfalls.

The workshop is designed for the novice beginner, intermediate, or the more advanced & accomplished watercolor artist. As always, this informal workshop will be a motivational, creative, and inspirational session with enjoyment and camaraderie among friends and fellow artists. Luke Buck, a native "Hoosier", grew up and studied art in Indiana. His nostalgic paintings of Americana landscapes and American wildlife show a love for life, art, and nature. Many "locals" here in northern Michigan appreciate his talents and enjoy collecting his paintings.

"The Old School House"

Luke has donated his original painting of The Old School House to Raven Hill. Luke painted the Center's Schoolhouse in 2015. This painting is now available to the public in a beautiful edition of Giclee Print for $30 each as a fundraiser for the Center. Luke will be available during the workshop to personally sign your print.

Workshop cost: $275 for 2 days. Lunch is included.
