Northwest Coastal Native myths explain the natural world, including the story of how Raven brought light to the world. As the story goes, Raven steals the light from the old man, who kept it in a box. As Raven flies away, Eagle sees him and tries to take the light from him, causing Raven to drop pieces of it, which becomes our sun, moon and stars.

“The raven is about rebirth, recovery, renewal, recycling, reflection and healing. He signifies moving through transitions smoothly by casting light into darkness.” Author unknown

May Raven bring the light to you and yours in 2021 and take away the darkness of 2020.
