

Raven Hill Discovery Center, incorporated in 1991, is a 501(c)(3) tax-exempt corporation.

Mission: Raven Hill provides a place that enhances hands-on and lifelong learning for all ages by connecting science, history & the arts.

The Rest of the Story was a radio program hosted by Paul Harvey during the Second World War. Harvey presented stories on a variety of subjects with a significant aspect of the story held back until the very end of the program. The broadcast always concluded with "And now you know...the rest of the story." You'll just have to wait until next week for "the rest of this story", since we still have no power!

